

Fall 2012 ECOLOGY COLLOQUIUM SERIES

presented by

CSUS DEPT. OF BIOLOGICAL SCIENCES,
U.S. FISH AND WILDLIFE SERVICE,
CALIFORNIA LANDSCAPE CONSERVATION COOPERATIVE, and U.S. GEOLOGICAL SURVEY

TUESDAYS, 4:30 pm, MENDOCINO HALL 1015

* * *

- Sept. 11 Research opportunities in ecology with the USGS
Tom Suchanek (USGS)
- Oct. 2 Science for wildlife management: examples from sage-grouse research
Pete Coates (USGS)
- Oct. 9 Methylmercury production, export, and bioaccumulation in rice fields and other managed wetlands of the Yolo Bypass #
Lisamarie Windham-Myers (USGS)
- Oct. 16 Ecological impacts and populations dynamics of nonindigenous caribou in the Aleutian Islands of Alaska
Mark Ricca (USGS)
- Oct. 23 Wetland habitat restoration in the Sacramento – San Joaquin Delta #
Stuart Siegel (Wetlands and Water Resources, Inc.)
- Oct. 30 Climate change and sea level rise
Karen Thorne (USGS and LCC)

Joint Ecology-Geology colloquium with Dept. of Geology

* * *

A reception follows each presentation in the Placer Hall Commons Room (second floor).
Please join us.

Questions? Contact CSUS 916.278.6535 or USGS 916.278.9495